The E iter of the last six Volumes of that Work.

This volume, among much new matter, contains, lesides a very perspicuous view of the modern system of Chemistry, several articles, in which the principles of Science are applied with address to improve and embellish the arts of life; such as, Arch, Building, Carpentry, the turning of Centre, and Bleashing. It contains likewise the most accurate account, perhaps, that has yet appeared in the English Language, of the doctrine of Moving Forces, under the titles Dynamics and Impulsion; as well as of the lately observed Phannamana, which has been called Animal Electricity, or more properly Galvanian; together with a concise View of the rise, progress and principles of the French Jacobins, and the German Illuminati.

Its Biography will be found literary and interesting.

DOWNING STREET-October 19, 1799.

Dispatches of which the following are copy and extracts, have been received from Lieutenant-Colonel RAMBAY, and Lieutenant-Colonel M. CLINTON, by the Right Hon. Lord GRENVILLE, his Majesty siPrincipal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Copy of a dispatch from Lieutenant-Colonel RAMSAT to Lord GRENVILLE, dated head-quarters, Shaffhausen, September

30,1799. My Lord,

IT is with extreme regret I inform your Lordship, that an attack has been made on the allied army the refult of which has been favourable to the enemy.

The combined operations of the allies, of which your Lordship is already informed, were intended to have taken place on the 26th and 27th; and fix battalions of the army, commanded by General Korfakof, were detached to Uznach on the 25th, for the purpose of increafing the force dellined to act in that quarter.

The enemy, who was, no doubt, apprifed of this circumitance, attacked the Russian army on the 25th, at a very early hour in the morning : A brifk attack of musquetry was heard on our left in the neighbourhood of Wallishofen, accompanied by a cannonade on our right, which appeared to proceed from the neighbourhood of Baden.

The attack on our left was intended merely for the purpose of drawing the attention from the true point; and the enemy passed the Limmat in great force in the neighbourhood of Weinengen, between Zurich and

By this manœuvre they broke the line in that quarter, cut off from the army the eight battalions under the command of Generals Markof and Durasof, who were posted between Weinengen and the Rhine; and, after leaving a corps for the purpose of observing and attacking them, they ascended the Limmat towards Zurich.

A regiment of dragoons being, in confequence of the detachments that had been fent away, and the troops that had been drawn to the left, the only force remaining in the part where the passage was effected, the enemy advanced and arrived in the neighbourhood of Zurich before they experienced any relitance of confequence; the plain in front of Zurich between the Limmat and the heights, which, running parallel to the well, being occupied at the fame time by a line of their infantry and cavalry, who, with a very numerous train of artillery, attacked with great vigour the troops in front of Zurich, and prevented their detaching to their right, the point on which the great efforts of the enemy were directed.

At a late hour in the forenoon some reinforcements arrived on this fide of the Limmat, but the enemy were already masters of some of the principal heights which command the town; and notwithstanding the bravery displayed by the Russians in their repeated attacks, the fuperiority in point of force and polition on the fide of the French rendered it impossible for them to regain that which had been loft. At funfet the French had made themselves masters of part of the Zurich-Berg and nearly furrounded the town.

The attack on the position of General Hotze had terminated rather in favour of the Austrians, but General Hotze was unfortunately killed at the commencement of the action, and General Petrarsch, who succeeded to the command of the army, having refolved, in consequence of the loss he had sustained, to avoid the attack which he expected the next morning, retreated in the night from Uznach.

The fituation of the Russian army was thus rendered still more critical, and it became absolutely necessary to abandon Zurich and the polition in that neighbourhood, without delay. On the 26th in the morning the retreat took place, and the whole arrived in the course of that night in the neighbourhood of Eglifau and Shaffhaufen without experiencing any lofs of confequence during their march.

We have to regret the lofs of between 2000 and 3000 men killed, wounded, and missing; and 10 pieces of cannon have, with a part of the baggage, fallen into the hands of the enemy. A nearly equal number of French cannon were taken by the Russians, but the want of horfes, which prevented them from taking away their own, was the cause of their being also obliged to leave thefe.

By a letter just arrived from Field-Marshal Suwarrow, it appears that he has taken the Mont St Gothard, and is at present advancing towards Altdorf and I have the honour to be, &c. Schweitz. JOHN RAMSAY.

Extract of a Dispatch from Lieutenant-Colonel RAMSAY to Lord Guenville, dated Head-quarters, Shaffhausen, September 30, 1799.

Your Lordship has already no doubt received acbefallen us in this country, in which out losses have most probably been exaggerated to a great degree. Aware of this I would if possible have fent your Lordship an earlier account; but it was impossible for me to give a correct flatement of the real flate of things, which was much worfe to appearance when the army first arrived here than at present.

General Petrarich has retreated from the different positions between Uznach and Rheinech, where it is supposed he has already passed the Rhine, and this part Switzerland may be considered as completely evacuated for the present; it is the more unfortunate, as rendered the success of the projected operation almost certain, if we had fortunately been able to retain our position. At present the Field-Marshal's situation will be rendered very critical, if timely notice has not been received by him of the retreat of the armies.

I am forry to inform your Lordship, that from the seports I have received, there is reason to apprehend that the Swifs regiments of Bachman and Rovorea have fuffered confiderably. I have as yet received no exact accounts, and I will defer therefore making any report to your Lordship till another opportunity occurs, as I am in hopes their loss has been chiefly occasioned by dispersion, in which case it will probably every day diminish.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel HENRY CLINTON to Lord GRENVILLE, dated Bellenzona, Sept. 16. 1799.

HAVING been directed by Lord Mulgrave to attend Field-Marshal Suwarrow on his march to Switzerland, and to transmit to your Lordship accounts of the proceedings of this army, I have the honour to inform you, that it reached Tavence, about ten miles short of this place, yesterday evening; having performed in five ters from London, of the 4th inft. with an affurance of lays a distance of one hundred and fixteen English | miles. It was the Field-Marshal's intention to have recovered, by the length of his marches, the three days loft by the falfe alarm for the fafety of Tortona; but the affemblage of mules which was ordered to be made at this place not being completed, and the impossibility of carriages proceeding any further in the mountains, obliges him to halt for one day.

Extract of a Letter from Munich, dated September 29. 1799

Two thousand four hundred men, as a part of the Elector's contingent, are to march on the 1st of next month from the neighbourhood of Donanwerth to join the army of the Archduke Charles.

The plan for forming into military corps the inhabi ants of the Palatinate is to have its effect throughout the Circle of Bavaria. It is framed for twenty thousand men, and is to be commanded in Bavaria by Major-General Duroy, an officer enjoying a high military cha-

Head-Quarters, Savigliano, Sept. 18. 1799.

On the 16th the Austrian army arrived at Bra. On the fame day the French advanced from the fide of Coni and Pignerol, to Fossano and Savigliano. In the latter place they succeeded in taking by surprise an Austrian detachment, confisting of four hundred men, and two pieces of cannon. It was reported that the French intended the day following to form a junction of all the corps in the different vallies, for the purpose of advancing into the plain with the greater fecurity, in order to pillage and plunder the country. To pre-vent this movement, the main army marched from Bra in two columns on the 17th; one under the command of General Kray attacked Foffano. The enemy, who were in force there, defended themselves with great bravery for near two hours; but the fuperior courage of the Austrian troops obliged them to abandon the post with the lofs of about two hundred and fifty prisoners. The Auftrian General Sechendorf, an officer of great reputation, was very feverely wounded. The column General Melas took possession of Savigliano without great refistance. Two pieces of eannon and two hundred prisoners were taken. The whole army will encamp near this town to-day.

HAMBURGH MAIL.

The Hamburgh mail, due on Wednesday last, ar rived on Saturday. It was brought over in the Prince of Wales packet, Captain Hearn. It was reported, when the packet left the Texel, that our troops had got into the Helder, and that the French, on accounof the waters, had retreated to Alkmaar; that on Fri day last the French in their retreat, burnt a village, and destroyed feveral magazines; and that our fick and wounded were all on board transports, ready to fail the first opportunity for England.
Private letters from Italy state, that their Sardinian

Majesties arrived at Leghorn on the 22d of September, n an English vessel, from whence they proceeded to heir capital.

From Naples we learn, that 2000 Neapolitan troop vere marching to reinforce the belieging army of Rome Some fugitives from the city of Ancona, represent the situation of the inhabitants as inconceivably wretched : Many people have been starved to death; provisions were fo fcarce that even horfe flesh fold at an extrava gant price. General Meunier, the Commandant, had ocen fummoned by the blockading Admirals, to furrender; and some private advices mention the actual capi tulation of the place, of which the confirmation was most confidently expected at Bologna on the 20th ult.

The Vienna Court Gazette of the 2d ult. contains a supplement extraordinary, dated the 1st, with the news of a fresh victory of Prince Rohan over the French, in the Genoese territory, by which they lost from 3000 to 4000 men.

ince Conde's army was to effect its juncti that of Switzerland, on the 3d October, as was like-wife a confiderable corps of Palatines. The French, who had advanced as far as Schaff haufen, have already begun to retreat again, for fear of being furrounded.

The Archdukes Charles and Ferdinand were to pass at Donauschingen on the 3d instant, and the greater part of the troops had already paffed Stuttgard on the 2d. Hence the offensive operations in Switzerland neuft have begun again from all fides.

The Vienna official news from the army of Italy come down to the 17th of September. Other advices from thence dated Savigliano the 24th, state that Pignerol (once to strong a fortress as to be deemed one o the keys of Italy) had been stormed by the Imperialists on the 23d. Hence, Turin feems to be relieved from the danger of invaliou from that quarter of the French

The latest advices from Switzerland are rather favour ble. Letters from Feldkirch of the 30th September as well as from Lindau of the Ist of October, mention General Jellachich's arrival in the former place, and his having given the confolatory affurance that on the fame day the combined armies would advance again. They alfo state, officially, news having been received there o a fresh victory obtained by General Melas, near Aosta in Piedmont, on the frontiers of Savoy; of which we anxiously expect the farther accounts from Vienna.

Generals Suwarrow, Jellachich, and Auffenberg, ar confidently mentioned to have formed a junction, in the smaller cantons; and Constance, we know, was retaken by the Imperialits on the evening of the 30th Sep-

A letter from Hamburgh, dated the 9th inflant, favs We are happy to find that some respectable English house at Hamburgh has just received, by express, letsome patriotic London merchants having resolved immediately to fend over, for the relief of Hamburgh, one million and a half sterling, in coin and bullion; which fum, amounting to above twenty millions of marcs banco, will certainly prevent further failures, and revive trade and confidence. The magistrates of Bremen have called a meeting of the principal merchants, to establish a fund for the relief of tratte, similar to that in Hamburgh, which we hope will prove more effectual than the

Another letter of the 12th, is as follows:

The agreeable news brought by Captain Searles, from London the 4th October, and who came over in a fishing-smack, purporting that a large quantity of spe-cie and bullion was to be brought over by Messis Goldfmiths and others, to relieve the Hamburgh merchants, occasioned, it is true, great joy among the drooping spirits; but the English mail of the 4th, not having arrived, and four capital houses having been since obliged to stop payment, it has caused fresh troubles among our mercantile men, and almost shaken the foundation of the very first houses. Indeed, the confequences of this evil are incalculable, if the promifed fuccour does not arrive from England .- Of the four capital houses stopt payment, one has declared itself bankrupt last night, Berend Roffen Solomon's fon, for 1,037,800 marks banco.'

To the failures at Hamburgh we have to add the folowing, announced by this day's mail:

October 9. Pet. Elert von Resewig, for 22,477 marks banco; Pierre Ang, Joseph Hamoir du Croizie, under the firm of Mestivie, and Hamoir du Croizie, for 73,505 marks banco. October 11. H. A. F. Katter, for 63,000 marks banco; Nicolaus Dominique le Lievre and Sons, for 300,000 marks banco; Hans Hin Springhorn and Herm. Hin. Kolls, under the firm of Springhorn and Kolls, for 67,300 marks banco.

We are forry to flate, that an express fent by a bye boat, which arrived before the mail, brings an account of the failure of the house of Wolf, Leven, and Popert, one of he greatest banking-houses in Europe. The general calamity is not confined to Hamburgh only. is rapidly extending to the other trading towns of the continent. Seven houses have stopt at Bremen, eleven at Frankfort, and fourteen at Amsterdam.

SWITZERLAND.

Head-Quarters, Donauschingen, Oct. 7 The unfortunate occurrences in Switzerland being already fufficiently known, I shall confine myself at pre fent merely to giving the outlines of them, and state the events which have taken place fince.

On the 25th uit, the Russian corps under the command of Lieut. Gen. Korfakow, on the Limmat, and the column of Field-Marshal Lieut. Hotze on the Linth, near Uznach, were defeated by the enemy. The former corps retreated by way of Eghiau, to the right bank of the Rhine, and the column of Field-Marshal Lieut. Hotze, on the 26th by St Gall into the diffrict of Vorarliberg.

Field-Marshal Prince Suwarrow was at Urseren, and General Auffenberg at Steig, on the 25th. On the 26th, Field-Marshal Lieut. Lincken de feated the enemy, and took prisoners two battalions of 1300 men, with the whole of the staff and other officers, and two stand of colours. On the 28th he advanced to Glaris; but not being able to open a communication, either to the right or to the left, he faw himfelf under the necessity of withdrawing to the Grison country on the 29th.

Field Marshal Suwarrow, and the brigade of Gene ral Auffenberg, having advanced as far as Swyz on the 28th, arrived at Glarus on the 1st of October; but not being able to effect a junction with any other corps, Field-Marshal Suwarrow was obliged to march to the Grifon country. Field-Marshal Suwarrow has, however, according to circular letter which has been received this morning defeated the enemy near Glarus, and took 1000 prifoners. At the fame time, the column of the Imperial Russian General Rosenberg made 1000 of the enemy prisoners near Matten, and took several pieces of cannon: The enemy's lofs in killed and wounded, on this occasion, was likewife very considerable.

CHARLES, Archduke, F. M.

BERN-OCTOBER I. A battle between Field-Marshal Suwarrow and Ge neral Maffena is daily expected to take place; the re fult of which will be of the utmost importance, and decifive. Suwarrow, as has already been stated, has entered the fouth of Switzerland with the Ruffians from Italy, from 15 to 20,000 in number. General Maffena, being informed of this, left Zurich on the 28th ult. with 12,000 men, to join Lecourbe and attack Suwarrow Six thousand men were at the same time de tached to the Canton of Glarus. Generals Klein, Lorge, Soult, Mortier, Hendelet, and others, are opposed to the Austrians and Russians, who have retreated crois the Rhine facing Zurich. Among the Ruffian Generals made prisoners on the 25th, was a French emigrant.

VERONA-SEPT. 26.

This day, about half past fix in the morning, an ordonance arrived as a courier, carrying a Ligurian stand of colours to his Excellency Baron de Riese, Governor of this city, with the long wished for intelligence that the city of Genoa had capitulated on the 23d, and that after his, the courier's departure, Prince Rohan was to enter the city with his troops.

The French and Batavians have re-entered Alkman, after a decifive victory obtained over the Anglo-Russian The day of the 7th was paffed in skirmisnes; on the 8th fome of the patroles of the two armies met and the gaged; at noon both armies were in motion. The English at first made a very strong resistance, but the being divided from the Russians rendered the latter in active. The route then began. Never was one more complete. They even left their women behind then. We have taken 200 prisoners. The number of killed is incalculable. The English have retired to their for entrenchments, deprived of all afliftance, of their anilery, and of their ammunicion. They have demanded permission to retite with the honours of war, but their request has been refused.

We are affured that the English have re-embarked in hafte, leaving behind them their baggage, and a great number of their foldiers.

A letter from Helvetia states, that among the 6000 prisoners taken from Sawarrow's army was almost the whole of his Staff.

OCTOBER 15.

The return of Buonaparte has caused the most kirely oy in every circle. Victory, which accompanies him wherever he goes, had this time preceded him. He comes to strike the last blow against the coalition. Tallien is appointed Administrator of our national domains in Egypt. The proposed journey of the Emperor Paul to Vie. na has been postponed, on account of the jealousy be tween the two Courts in what regards the affairs of l.

taly. The Breft fleet is ordered to be kept in constant to dinefs. The army of the Grand Vizier will probably not a to Egypt. It is faid that the Porte, discontented with his conduct, means to superfede him ; but that he reditates declaring his independence, rendering himfel master of Syria, and securing the possession of that not province by a treaty which he is to conclude with the French Republic, through the medium of the Commu der in Chief of the army of the East.

Another story is in circulation.—It is said that But naparte brings with him a treaty concluded with the Grand Signior, and that the army of the Grand Vizier will turn its army against Crimea and the fouthern provinces of Russia. These reports appear extraordinary but the name of Buonaparte has hitherto been connected with fuch unexpected events, that no fcale of probability can be adopted with respect to circumstances directed by his genius. Buonaparte and Berthier have not arrived alone from the banks of the Nile. They were accompanied by Ge-nerals Laines, Marmont, Murat, Andreoffi, and Citzens Mons and Bertholet, names dear to glory and to science. They have left the army of Egypt in the molt fatisfactory state. Moreau is at Paris.

Buonaparte, Member of the National Institute, Commander in Chief, to the Executive Directory.

Head-quarters at Alexandria. 17 Thermidor, Aug. 4. Citizen Directors.—On the 8th Thermidor I summoned the Castle of Aboukir to surrender. The son of the Pacha, his Kiaja, and all the officers wished to capitulate: but the sole diers would not listen to them. On the 9th the bombardment was continued, and on the 10th several batteries were established on the right and left of the Isthmus. Several sloops of war were sunk, a frigate was dismasted and obliged to stretch out to sea. On the 10th, the enemy beginning to want provisions, repaired to some houses in the village that is close to the fort. General Lasne immediately attacked them there, but was wounded in the thigh. General Menou replaced him in the command of the siege. On the 12th General Davoost forced their trenches, and made himself master of all the houses where wounded in the thigh. General Menou replaced him in the command of the siege. On the 12th General Davoost forced their trenches, and made himself master of all the houses where the enemy lodged, and drove them back into the fort, after having killed a number of them. The 22d regiment of light infantry, and the Chief of Brigade Magni, who was slightly wounded, conducted themselves in the most perfect namer.—On the 15th General Robin also forced their trenches. Our batteries were established on the counterscarp; our mostars made a tremendous fire; the castle was now na more thankaged forces. The enemy then took the part not to capitulate, for these sort of people do not understand that, but to throw down there or people do not understand that, but to throw down their arms, and to come in a croud to embrace the knees of the conqueror. The son of the Pacha his Kiaja, and 2000 men were made prisoners. We found in the fort 300 wounded, and 1800 dead bodies; several of our balls had killed six men. In the first 24 hours after the Turkish garrison had left the place. above 400 prisoners died from cating and drinking with too much avidity. Thus this affair of Aboukir cost the Port 18,000 men, and a great number of cannons. During the 15 days that this expedition lasted, I have been prifectly satisfied with the conduct of the inhabitants of Egypt, not a person removed, and every one continued to live in their usual manner.

The engineer officers Bertrand and Liedes, and the commander of the artillery Faultrier, have conducted themselves

Zurich having been summoned to surrender, offered to do so upon conditions which were partly accepted, but the Russian advanced posts having with unheard of ferocity fired on our flag of truce, and having wounded two trumpets, I gave battle to the enemy on the 26th, in consequence of which Zurich was taken by main force.

Generals Mortier and Klein commanded the attack of Zurichon teleft, and Lorge on the right bank.

At the same time Sewarrow, whose march was combined with the approaching attack which the armice of Hotze and Korsakoff were mast g against us, forced the passage of St Gothard, and merched in a mass towards the lesser Cantons, to go from thence to join these two farmes, to take the command of them, and to invade the French territory at their head. Korsakoff defeated, and Hotze killed, Suwarrow could no more hope to be victorious.

I directed the division of Mortier to Schweitz, the division of Klein to Wesen, and marched myself against Altorf; but

I directed the division of Mortier to Schweitz, the division of Klein to Wesen, and marched myself against Altorf; but Sawarrow had passed from Schacheuthol in the Multenthal; he was with the mass of his army in the neighbourhood of Mutten, and had carried a corps by Clouthal to the valley of Glarus. It being impossible to spread the troops in such narrow vallies, I determined to leave Suwarrow at liberty to enter Switzerland by Ensilden. I had hopes that, pressed by the bloody battles which I had fought in the valley of Mutten, and wearied with the resistance which I opposed to him in the defile of Glarus, he would come out of his trap by the point of Ensilden, where I had but one bartalion of observation, and that then I should be able to fight him at my case in the open balan. Suvarrow, however, being willing to avoid a general plain. Suwarrow, however, being willing to avoid a general and decisive affair, threw himself into the Grisons by the valley of Fleurs. Being continually harrassed on his flanks and his rear by the corps destined to attack him if he had remained, he retreated by dreadful ways, with despair in his heart, leaving 2000 wounded, part of his artillery, and almost all his hazerage in our power.

LOSS OF LA LUTINE FRIGATE.

We are extremely concerned to announce the lofs of la Lutine frigate, Captain Skynner, of 32 guns. She foundered on Borkum Reefs, to the eastward of the Texel, and excepting two persons, every soul on board perished. She had on board the mails for the army in Holland, and a large quantity of bullion, upwards of two hundred thousand pounds value, going to Hamburgh for the relief of the merchants there. The loss of the money is the least evil. Besides the crew there were feveral merchants of London on board-all are perifhed with the exception above flated. The bullion was all infured, principally by under-writing companies; but this does not leffen the loss to the community—it only changes the individuals on whom it falls.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

It is with extreme concern we relate, that intelli-gence was on Saturday received at the Admiralty from Captain Portlock, of his Majefty's ship Arrow, com-municated by Admiral Mitchell, giving an account of the total loss of La Lutine, of 32 guns, on the outer bank of the Ely Island passage, on the night of the 9th instant, in a heavy gale at N. N. W. La Lutine, on the same morning (the 9th) sailed from Yarmouth Roads with several passengers, and 140,000 guineas, for the Texel; but a strong lee-tide rendered every effort of Capacia. effort of Captain Skynner to avoid the threatened danger unavailable, and it was alike impossible during the night to receive any assistance either from the Arrow or from the shore, from whence several schoots were in readiness to go to her. When the dawn broke, La Lutine was in vain looked for; she had gone to pieces, and all on board unfortunately perished, exceptwo men, who were picked up, and one of whom has fince died from the fatigue he had encountered.

To this account, so full of callamity, it is added, that La Lutine was to have proceeded to Hamburgh with money to check the commercial failures in that place. It is even faid, that one house in the city, whose active and general benevolence has created more than common interest with the public, had fent 150,000l, and that the whole sum, which thus went to the bottom, amounted to half a million, of which 200,000l. had been in

A nephew of Meffis Goldsmitd, who was going e ver with the specie for the relief of the Hamburgh mer chants, in consequence of the late failures, and to lend them that affillance which the respectable House of his uncles is on every occasion ready to give to the commercial world, is, we are forry to find, among the num ber of those who are lost. The only survivor is a Mr. Schibrack, a Norary Public.

One account fays 600,000l. in specie were on board. of which they claim the victory.

Early on Saturday morning his Majefly's thip Impregnable, in coming up to Spithead in thick blowing weather, got on shore on the Poles, near Chichester harbour, where she soon got seven seet water in her hold. All her masts were cut away at the deck, to highten her, but she is not yet moved, and apprehenupon the weather continuing fine.
The Coburg cutter, Lieut. O'Neil, arrived in the Humber, while the brings the latest accounts that have hitherto been received from Holland, affords a remark able inflance of dispatch. The Coburg left Yarmouth with dispatches on Friday last, arrived in the Texel on Saturday, and on Sunday evening anchored in Hull roads!—When the left the Helder it was reported that a ceffation of hostilities had taken place in Holland, and great hopes were entertained that the evacuation would be effected without lofs.

Admiral Mitchell had placed the fire ships in the most advantageous situation for destroying what cannot or is not worth bringing away. The guns of the Helder battery are taken off; the foldiers are taking up the platforms, levelling the fortifications, &c. Our foldiers have every where behaved most bravely; but the feafon of the year, the difficulties of the country, and the fuperiority of numbers, are obstacles which cannot be

A letter from on board the Monarch, of 74 guns, dated at Yarmouth, October 18, contains some particulars of extreme interest respecting the naval force of the Dutch. Admiral Dickson, on the 7th of this month, sent Lieutenant Yellard with a flag of truce to Helvoet, for the purpose of ascertaining the force at that place, and the polibility of obtaining it by negocia-tion or attack. Our correspondent had not learnt the particulars of the negociation; but it was, we regret to flate, unfuccefsful. The Concord, of 44 guns, Juno, of 32, and Scipio, of 24, were in Helvoet Roads, in all respects ready for sea. The Brutus, of 70 guns, and Burnkvelt, and Courtrand, of 68, in a similar state of preparation, had failed up to Dort; whether the Dogger Bank, Jean de Witt, and Neptune, of 68 guns then in the bason, were to follow as soon as they had embarked the whole of their ammunition.

The Dubuc failed from the Thames on the 19th instant, for the Cape of Good Hope, which is a for tunate circumstance for those persons who lately wrote by the Flora brig, which was cap ured off Folkstone on the very first day of her failing as they have now had an opportunity of sending duplicates by the Dubuc. The Princes Mary and Mornington East India packets are gone round from the river Thames to Portsmouth, from whence they will fail in the course of the ensuing week-the former for St Helena and Bengal, and the latter for Madras and Bombay.

The Ajax merchantman will fail from the Thames for Gibraltar, Minorca, and Leghorn, on the 28th inft. as will also the Recovery, for Charlestown, on the 26th; the Lydra, for Madeira, on the 25th; Adriana, for Philadelphia, on 26th; the Kitty, Farmer, from Liverpool for Barbadoes, on 24th; Freedom, Taylor, from do. for Charlestown, on 24th.

The Mary, Captain Thomson, failed from Falmouth for Jamaica and the Leeward Islands on the 16th inft with the mails that were made up to the 2d—as did al-fo the Prince Adolphus, Captain Boulderson, for Lifbon, with the mails of the 8th inftant.

The Prince of Wales, Captain Sutton, failed on the 18th from Yarmouth for the Helder, with letters and dispatches for the army there.

The Lisbon fleet is safe arrived.

An augmentation is about to take place in the Royal regiment of artillery. A Colonel-Commandant, a Major, and a few companies are immediately to be added.

EDINBURGH-OCTOBER 24.

The Hamburgh mail due on Sunday arrived on Monday.

By the Vienna Court Gazette of the 5th inft. we have a confirmation of the forming of Pignerol by the Imperialists, under Prince Lichtenstein, who commanded in the room of General Oct, who was ill. Major-General Bellegarde having been detached in support of General Kaim in his expedition against Suza, it completely fucceeded.

Rivoli has likewise been re-taken from the enemy by an inferior force. They were attacked in both flank and rear. Night alone put an end to the contest. The enemy lost near 1000 men, 400 of whom were made prisoners.

The Court Gazette of the fame date contains the Archduke's report of the affairs in Switzerland on the 25th and 26th. He states that he had hastened with the greatest part of his army towards Switzerland, having left a fufficient corps under Prince Schwarzenberg to

An express from the Archduke states the account of a fresh victory obtained in Switzerland by Suwarrow, near Glarus, in which about 1000 prisoners were taken. An equal number, with feveral pieces of cannon, were taken by General Rofenberg, near Matten, besides a number killed and wounded. Immediately after the disafters of the allied troops, on the 25th, Field-Marshall Lincken defeated the French corps opposed to him in a most complete manner, took two whole Battalions, amounting to 1300 men, prisoners with their colours, &c. This happened as early as the 26th; and on the 28th, the same General advanced to wards Glarus; yet, not being able to effect a communication either to his right or less the withdraw on the nication either to his right or left, he withdrey on the 29th to the Grison country. The victories of both Suwarrow and Rosenberg must have happened early in October.

French papers to the 16th instant have been received ved. They contain various statements respecting the actions between Massena's army and the allies, in all

An event, which will be thought by many not the least fingular one announced in these journals, is the re-turn of Buonaparte, with Berthier, and his other priocipal officers, to France, after taking Aboukir, and having, as they affert, left the army in the most favour-able position. If every thing was so promising in Fgypt, why did they leave it?

The French papers fay, BUONAPARTE has left Egypt well organized, and under the command of Genera

It is plain from even the Directorial accounts, that the fuccelles which they boalt in Switzerland, were not cheaply obtained; they acknowledge a victory of Suwarrow upon the 1st inst, over Thureau, who was re-pulled into the Jalais. They acknowledge the arrival of the army of Conde at Schaff hausen on the 6th, and even speak of a part of it being engaged at Consunce. They also acknowledge that Suwarrow marched from Altorf into the Canton of Glaris with 30,000 men. Lecourbe therefore had been beaten a fecond time at that place, to which the last French confessions admitted him to have retreated.

As the French themselves contradict the telegraphic count of the defeat of Suwarrow on the 5th and 6th of October, we have no doubt of hearing very different accounts from that General.

The Directory has fent a message to the Councils, stating the finances to be in the most wretched state, and calling for supplies. .

A letter from Oude Sluys, dated Od. 13, says-We continue builty employed in fortifying our advanced post of Schagen, the station of General Coote's brigade. The main body has retired within the Zype; and our politions are fuch that we may defy any attempt the enemy may have the prefumption to make on us, until we receive our final orders to re-embark, a meafure which I think is rendered inevitable, from the most painful experience of the extreme inutility, not to fay immenfe danger, of remaining much longer in this shocking country. We are also fortifying the Point of Helder and the Texel Island, where, I understand, a part of our army is to pals the winter; a circumstance which has given rife to a supposition that we are to re-new our offensive operations early in the spring. All our heavy baggage has moved towards our shipping, and there is every appearance of the immediate termination of this expedition. General Don is now at Amster-dam, with a slag of truce, where there are, it is faid, at this time some Prussian officers. The object of his mission is reported to be, to treat for the peaceable eva-cuation of this country by our army. It is also remark-ed, that the King of Prussia has taken a particular in-terest in this business.

EXCERPTS from the Transactions of the Royal Society of Edinburgh, vol. 1. page 17.

Fandery 5. 1784.

" Dr Roebuck read fome observations on the ripea-

"Summer 1782 having been remarkably cold and unfavourable, the harvest was very late, and much of the grain, especially outs, was green in October. In the beginning of October, the cold was so great, hat in one night there was produced on ponds near Kinneil, in the neighbourhood of Borrowstounness, ice three quarters of a just high. in the neighbourhood of Borrowitounness, ice three quarters of an inch thick. It was apprehended by many farmers, that such a degree of cold would effectually prevent the further filling and ripening of their corn.—
In order to alcertain this point, Dr Roebuck felected several stalks of oats of nearly equal sulness, and immediately cut those, which on the most attentive comparison, appeared the best, and marked the others, but allowed them to remain in the field sourcer days longer; at the end of which time they too were cut, and kept in a dry room for ten days. The grains of er; at the end of which time they too were cut, and kept in a dry room for ten days. The grains of each parcel were then weighed, when cleven of the grains which had been left flanding in the field, were found to be equal in weight to thirty of the grains which had been cut a formight fooner, though even the best of the grains were far from being ripe. During that formight (viz. from October 7, to October 21,) the average heat, according to FAMERNHEIT'S Thermometer, which was observed every day at eight o'clock in the morning, and fix in the evening, was a little above 43. Dr Roebuck observes, that this rippening and filling of corn in so low a temperature, should pening and filling of corn in fo low a temperature, should be the less surprising to us, when we reflect that seed-corn will vegetate in the same degree of heat; and he draws an important inference from his observation, viz. "That farmers should be cautious of cutting down their unripe corn, on the supposition, that in a cold autumn it could fill no more."

Our harvest is about sinshing. The wheat is of various, and altogether of indifferent quality, and unproductive in quantity.—Barley is rather a large crop, but the quality will be stained and damp with grown corns, and much of it is very black.—Oats, in general, will be ordinary.—Pease are a moderate crop.—Beans are yet in the field; and will ptobably come to hand exceedingly soft.—The prices of new wheat are 70s. a 80s.; but these high prices cannot be expected to last.

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juflices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the county of Perth, strongly impressed with a sense of gratitude to the Great Ruler of the universe, for the signal, glorious, and repeated successes which have attended your Majefly's arms, and those of your allies, by fea and land, in various parts of the world, beg leave most humbly and respectfully to approach the throne, and to offer to your Majesty our most fincere and warm congratulations on fuch important events.

By the judicious and energetic employment of the national force, guided by the wifdom of your Majelty's counfels, and aufpicious government, by the liberal aid of Parliament, by the patriotie zeal, spirit, and loyalty, of your people, by the distinguished skill and bravery of your fleets and armies, and with the great and powerful co-operation of your Majesty's allies, victories the most splendid and momentous, have been obtained.

From these great atchievements it has resulted, that fome nations, after having been refeued from the opprefive dominion and treachery of France, and from the galling necessity of yielding a reluctant and forced compliance with her wildly-ambitious destructive schemes, have been restored to their rightful fovereigns, and legitimate governments; other nations, not only of Europe, but of distant quarters of the globe, have been awakened to a fense, and have been preserved from the influence of the delutive and baneful principles of France, and have been protected and fecured against the calamities of French invalion and conquest; and a confident and well-founded hope and expectation have arisen over Europe, and throughout the world, that, by a fleady perseverance in the profecution of these mighty objects, your Majelty and your allies will at last prevail over that revolutionary power and spirit in France, which threatens with ruin and subversion all nations, alike by the force of arms, and by the diffemination of principles incompatible with peace, bappiness, and security, and destructive of civil and religious duty.

To the final accomplishment of these objects we look forward with anxious expectation, but patient and manly firmness, knowing that by their attainment only a fit termination can be put to the present arduous struggle (though in a just and necessary war), and an honourable, secure, and permanent peace can be obtained.

That your Majesty may long reign over a loyal and grateful people, is our ardent wish. Signed by our Prefes, in our name and by our appointment. Perth, Oct. 11. DRUMMOND HAY KINNOUL, Prefes.

THE LANDS of WHITERIG, in the parish of Bowden, consisting of about 92 capital arable acres, divided into inclosures by thriving hedges and plantations.—There is a neat Mansion-house, and a convenient set of offices in the centre of the property.—It is remarkably well calculated for a villa, or the residence of a Gentleman who wishes to amuse himself with farming, being situated in a very desireble neighbour-hood, only two miles distant from Melrose, ten from Jedburgh and Kelso, all good market towns, and about half a mile from the great road from Edinburgh to Newcastle, by Jedburgh.

The purchaser can have access to the natural possession of theil ands at Whitsunday next. The tenant will show the lands; and persons wishing to purchase, may apply for further lands; and persons wishing to purchase, may apply for further particulars to Cornelius and James Elliots, writers to the sig-net, Edinburgh, in whose hands are the title-deeds and plan of the estate, and who have power to sell by private bargain.

By Adjournment, SALE OF VALUABLE ESTATES IN THE COUNTY OF FORFAR

OF FORFAR.

To be Sold on Friday the 8th day of November next, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse in Edinburgh, between the hours of one and two o'clock afternoon, THE LANDS and ESTATES of BALLINSHOE and

CRAIGNATHRO', lying in the Parishes of Kirrie-muir and Forfar, together or in lots. The said lands of Ballinshoe, &c. lie contiguous and within two miles of Forfar and Kirriemuir. They consist of about 1400 acres of rich arable land, (800 of which are substantially inclosed and divided by stone dykes) 200 acres of planting, and about 500 acres of pasture and moss.

The most affords not only an abundant supply of fuel to the estate but also for sale. There is likewise in these lands a bed of shell marle easily wrought. The lands of Craignathro lie in the vicinity of Forfar, and inclosed and subdivided by good stone dykes.

The farm houses of Craignathro' are lately built and slated. On these lands there is an excellent free-stone quarry, and on trees tands there is an extendit free-stone quarry, and a quarry of most valuable slate.

The lands of Craignathro' will be sold by themselves in one

The lands of Craignathro' will be sold by themselves in one lot; and if the lands of Ballinshoe, &c. are not sold in one lot, they will be exposed in the two following lots, viz.

Lot I. Comprehending those parts of the lands of Ballinshoe, lying to the eastward of the public road leading from Forfar to Kirriemuir.

Lot II. Comprehending the remaining parts of the lands of Ballinshoe, and lying to the westward of said road.

The present-rent of Ballinshoe and Craignathro' exclusive of the moss, marle, planting, and quarries, exceeds 1250 Sterling. There are also a considerable number of kaines of different kinds.

The public burdens are very moderate, being only 15 bolls, 9 peaks, 3 lippies meal, 7 bolls of bear, and 14l. 17s. 6d. 10-12ths Sterling.

The whole of these lands are out of lease or nearly so, and very great rises of rent may be depended upon.

The lands of Ballinshoe hold feu of the Earl of Strathmore for payment of 7h 3s. 9d. 9-12ths Sterling, which is included in the amount of the public berdens above mentioned.

The lands of Craignathro' hold of the Crown, and are valued in the cess books at 233l. 6s. 8d. Scots.

The teinds of the lands of Ballinshoe, &c. in the parish of Kirriemu'r were valued in the 1634, and they are nearly ex-hausted by the late augmentation given to the minister of the

The free yearly rent (the public burdens being trifling) is 254l. 1s. 1d. which must rise considerably on the expiry of the present leases.—About 300 acres of the lands are inclosed and subdivided; the fields are in ge-neral well watered, and sheltered with hedge-rows of old trees and broad belts of planting, all which are in the most thriving condition. There are nearly 40 acres of wood on this proper condition. There are nearly 40 acres of wood on this property, of very considerable value, great part of which may be cut and thinned at present with much profit and advantage.

The Mansion-house is delightfully situated, with suitable Offices and an excellent Garden; the whole being calculated for the accommodation of a genteel family. The Farm Houses are new and substantial, a purchaser may enter to the immediate possession of above 60 acres of valuable land surrounding the house. The estate and neighbouring country abound with game, and a fine trouting stream runs through the lands.—A more desirable country residence is not at present to be found. This estate is held feu of the Prince. The lands are not thirled to any mill; and the teinds are valued and exhausted.

The rivers run and the country slopes to fouth-east; and, from the dryness of its foil, is warmer, and has more fair weather, than most parts of the kingdom north of the Trent and the Mersey, being protected from the cold fogs of the East Sea by the Scotch mountains, and from the storms and rains of the Western Ocean by the north of Ireland, and the mountains of West Galloway.

These lands are situated in a sine sporting country, and lie alongst the great road from Dumfries to Port-Patrick, about fourteen miles from the former, and within three of the market and post town of Castle-Douglas, and sive of a barbour, where sime and coal are casily imported from, and grain, &c. exported to the west focalt of England. On one of these farms there is an excellent situation for an inn, precisely midway betwixt Dumfries and Gatchouse, an advantage not possessed by a set of the most intelligent, industrious, and wealthy tenants in the country, and are all well inclosed and subdivided, having convenient new built farm steadings, sheltered with belts of planting. There still remains some marle upon the citate undug, and plenty may be had from Cralingwark Loch, in the neighbourhood.

This citate affords four Freehold Qualifications to vote for a Representative in Parliament, all on distinct farms, by old extent. It is intended to fell one of the farms at the extremity of the citate, with a freehold qualification, apart.

The proprietor has right to the teinds, which were also valued in 1766; and the lands are free from all attriction, except to the barony mill, which makes a part of the subject to be fold.

The house is most sufficient, and fit for the accommodation of a large family. There is a complete fet of offices, with a productive dovecoat; ponds stocked with fish of various kinds; a garden, orchard, and fruit walls in full bearing. The ESTATE of LOCHLANDS, lying in the parish of St Vigeans, and county of Forfar.

These lands are pleasantly situated close by the thring manufacturing town of Arbroach; are bounded on both ide by a turnpike road, and consist of about 74 arable acres, of a good soil, and betwist four and five acres of Hill and Lock. The present rent, after deducting public burdens, is 148l. Stelling, 43l. of which is yearly feu-duty payable out of about five acres, adjoining to the town, which were feued some years ago; and it is probable that some acres more of the same field may be feued to greater advantage. The purchaser can enter to about 35 acres of the best of the land at Martinmas 1800, and to the rest at Whitsunday 1803, when a very long lease expires, and a great rise of rent may be expected. The lands afford a Frechold Qualification, which may be sold either with or without the property, as purchasers shall incline. There are upon the estate many beautiful situations for building, commanding a fine view of the sea, the town, and the adjacent country; and these advantages render it a very desirable purchase. A considerable part of the price may remain in the purchaser's hand upon proper security.

For further particulars application may be made to the proprietor at Manse of Maryton by Montrose, or to Charles Greenhill, Esq. at Old Montrose, who has power to conclude a bargain before the day of sale; and Henrie Petrie, brewer in Arbroath, will show the lands.
